

For companies and organizations looking for cutting edge solutions beyond standard accounting and auditing services, Grassi Consulting offers strategic services that help organizations run their businesses better.

CEOs and business owners turn to us when they are faced with situations such as:

- Fear that their company may have been victimized or could be susceptible to employee fraud
- Want the assurance that their operations are running at their peak of efficiency and that they have realized any and all cost-savings that may be available to them
- Need the peace-of-mind while contemplating an acquisition that only a thorough financial due-diligence can provide
- Are grappling with the challenges of Sarbanes-Oxley and other regulatory compliance and want a less painful approach for compliance
- Need financial documentation that will stand-up in court when faced with costly litigation

Consulting means different things to different people; at Grassi Consulting, it's a suite of services with a core base in accounting that extend beyond standard accounting and assurance work.

Clients turn to Grassi Consulting when they want high caliber resources for their projects, coupled with a more personalized level of service that other firms cannot match. Grassi Consulting includes individuals with diverse backgrounds and experience in both the public and private arena.

Our services focus on two areas:

Forensic & Litigation Support Services

Whether it's a complex litigation that requires a sophisticated accounting of assets, a suspicion of fraud at an organization or a recalculation of payments in a disputed partnership, our professionals possess the technical know-how and accounting acumen to provide the necessary support to bring cases to a swift and successful conclusion.

Our services in this area include the following:

- Fraud Deterrence & Detection
- Forensic Investigations & Accounting
- Dispute/Litigation Consulting
- Business Interruption & Insurance Claims

Business Advisory Services

Finding the competitive edge in today's increasingly complex business environment often necessitates taking a creative look at an organization's financial operations and asking probing, insightful questions. Grassi Consulting offers a suite of business advisory services to help organizations remain competitive and unlock hidden value in their operations. Among our services are the following:

- Operational Reviews
- Transitional Support – CFO Advisory Services
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Bankruptcy & Reorganization Services
- Regulatory Compliance
