NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE – MOORE STEPHENS INTERNATIONAL LIMITED Global Reach and an International Perspective with Personalized Service & Attention

Rapidly changing markets; complex business transactions; and expanding global commerce are just some of the issues businesses face. But, you don't have to navigate through this maze of challenges alone. Grassi & Co. can help.

In this global marketplace, you must find ways to remain competitive, innovative and profitable. At the same time, complying with all the regulations, laws and policies takes tremendous effort. No individual firm, regardless of its size, will have all the answers to national and global financial and business issues. That's why Grassi & Co. is an independent firm associated with Moore Stephens North America, the North American region of Moore Stephens International Limited.

This global association consists of more than 360 independent accounting and consulting firms with nearly 650 offices in more than 95 countries. Moore Stephens North America is the sixth largest CPA association in the United States.

The breadth and depth of services available to our clients with are equivalent to those offered by Big 4 firms. These services are enhanced by a more hands-on, personalized approach to serving client needs. Together, we can work with you to develop a strategy to help you reach your desired goals.

Because Moore Stephens North America accounting firms are independent of one another, the accessibility of multiple professional services can be offered in a "one-stop shopping" approach. Contrast this with the Big 4 firms: you would, under the current regulatory environment, have to obtain one service from one firm (e.g. attest) and look elsewhere for another firm to service your other business needs.

The firms of Moore Stephens strive to be the best in their markets. They offer a range of services to help you grow, realize and protect your wealth. Technical services are designed to deliver practical solutions to businesses in a variety of industries. What could be better than getting the advice you need from an industry specialist in the country you desire? How about getting all that from your trusted business advisor?

It's very simple, yet highly effective. Grassi & Co. will put you in touch with knowledgeable professionals in your local markets; with accountants who provide the personalized attention you expect and who comply with the quality and service standards demanded by the profession. As a result, you'll benefit from collective intellectual capital that reaches beyond regional or even national borders into the global market.
